Relocation to Jersey

With a long history of advising families and businesses on their relocation to Jersey, we are a full-service offering providing Jersey law advice on residency, property, employment, corporate, private wealth and regulatory matters.

Our Jersey private client and property teams are ranked in the very highest tier by leading independent legal directories, emphasising our standards of technical knowledge, expertise and client care.

Our lawyers work to understand the unique requirements and motivations of each individual client to tailor our services accordingly.

We are also able to act seamlessly as part of clients' existing advisory ecosystems or, where required, we can coordinate and build a team of international advisers to meet clients' needs and achieve their objectives.

WHAT WE DO

We assemble and advise on applications under the High Value Residency programme

Our top-tier Property Law team advises on the purchase and renting of property in Jersey

Our top-tier Private Client team advises on wills, trusts, succession planning, probate and Lasting Powers of Attorney

We advise relocating clients and businesses on licensing and employment of staff

Our regulatory team advises on economic substance requirements

ABOUT US
